Seeking in the night
Looking for a light
In the eyes of someone
Just an answer
Seeking in the night
Outside everything seems alright
But no one knows and no one comes in
To see its only pretend

What are you going to do?
What are you going to say?
Will you be a hand reaching out?
Or just another turning away?

You see them seeking in the night
They're looking for the light
Don't you turn them away
When you have the answer
Jesus, He is the light
And He is shining so bright
He's all that they really need
He is the answer

See them seeking in the night
Looking for the light
Don't you turn them away
You have the answer
You know the way
